DeviceOps Synthetic Campus Switch Manual

Version 1.0 - MIT licensed test document - no real vendor claims

Amber status LED indicates a warning requiring telemetry review.

High temperature can indicate blocked airflow or excessive load.

Inspect temperature and power observations before recommending action.

Do not reboot healthy equipment solely because an image shows amber.

Switch restart requires manager approval and fresh offline evidence.